VFW Present Flag To Draft Board

The Stars and Stripes now adorn the wall of Daly City Draft Board No. 103 office, as a gift from the men who fought for American rights before, Old Glory Post No. 2044, Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Receiving the new flag from the V. F. W. were members and office personnel of the draft board at an informal presentation, Tuesday evening, at the draft office, Room 23, city hall. Representing the V. F. W. and presenting the flag were Roy Brulez, quartermaster; Howard McHugh, post commander; and Walter Lehigh.

Dr. J. C. McGovern, chairman of the draft board, received the gift and thanked the V. F. W. in a brief address. Present were the

Youngsters Throng To Annual Party

Santa Claus and Daly City civic leaders got together in true Christmas spirit, Monday, at the Daly City theatre and staged the grandest party yet for a throng of over two thousand school children. It was a party which will be remembered by this young generation for many years to come.

The event set off the Christmas holiday vacation for the children with a spirit of giving and enjoyment on their opening vacation day. Both stage and screen attractions headlined the show at the annual party. The stage show was presented entirely by the Indians of Rhythm, music organization of Jefferson Union high school.

The children were greeted with a warm welcome and a bag of candy by none other than old Santa, himself, at the door of the theatre when they first entered. Although eager to see the show,

Is Your Kitchen Working For U. S.?

Cleared of 3800 pounds of tin cans in a recent salvage collection, Daly City kitchens were again summoned to resume their duties as Uncle Sam's tin can salvage depots for the production front.

This mammoth collection of nearly two tons of tin cans, collected by grammar school children in Daly City, represents the largest amount yet to be turned in. Due to the Christmas holiday closing of school, R. L. Crane jr., local salvage chairman, announced

Robert Dillen Clark, Daly City Seaman, Sees Action On Famous "San Francisco"

Robert Dillen Clark, Daly City seaman who saw action on the famous San Francisco, heralded American cruiser which won a single-handed victory against a fleet of Japanese warships in the Solomons, was among the heroes honored in San Francisco, Friday.

A water tender, second class, on the San Francisco, Bob is starting on his fifth year in the Navy. Battle-seasoned after plenty of action in the Pacific, even before the historic Solomons triumph of the San Francisco, Bob still remembered one thing when he returned here, where he lives with his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. John Caine, 395 Frankfort avenue.

Amid the feeling of heroism which belonged to all of the San Francisco's crew, Bob had remembered one thing, even though he was a seaman of four years and hardened to the life.

It was yellow roses. He couldn't come straight home because he had no shore leave when the famous cruiser docked, but he sent his aunt here yellow roses be-

INACTIVE C. D. WORKERS MUST RETURN THEIR

SHORTAGE CAME TO LIGHT AT RECENT TRAINING CLASS

A shortage of gas masks for active civilian defense volunteers in Daly City brought about a sharp demand by Arthur J. Bodien, civilian defense director, yesterday, to "dead timber" of the organization. Those who signed up and received gas masks, but failed to become active in defense training and drills were asked to return the masks to civilian defense headquarters, so that they could be used by someone else.

"All masks are out, and there is a decided shortage," Bodien commented, "and I know there are plenty of gas masks that have never been used since they were given out. There are plenty of other people who are interested enough in civilian defense to make use of them."

First noticeable shortage of masks was found during a gas defense training class conducted by R. L. Crane jr., training director, Thursday night at Company 1 firehouse. Since that time, sixteen have been returned, fumigated, and sterilized, and have been re-issued. The city received 351 gas masks several months ago when they were issued to local defense councils by the OCD. According to OCD regulations, the volunteer must complete 90 hours of basic training to be eligible to keep a mask.

However, Bodien commended those who have been active in civilian defense duties during the past year of war.

"There are many in Daly City who have been very faithful in attendance at both classes and air raid drills," he said. "These are the volunteers that I want to urge to keep up the good work. We have been at war for over a year now and there still haven't been any attacks, but the danger of one is still as great as ever."

In the control center at civilian defense headquarters, new telephones have been installed for emergency service. The Civilian Defense Council now has seven phones in the control room, three for incoming messages and four for outgoing calls.

A large wall map will also be installed soon for use in the control room, Bodien said. Purchase of the map has already been approved by the city council, and Bodien is now awaiting delivery.

SEASON'S GREETINGS

DALY CITY RECORD

(EDITORIAL)

This Christmas is not like the Christmas all of us have known since childhood. It's not just that Joe and Bill are in the army and Ted's on a flat-top; it's not just that butter and meat are hard to find or maybe missing. It's that suddenly all the usual folderol of the Yuletide, pleasant though it is, is rather meaningless. What we wish from the bottom of our hearts for all our loved ones and for our nation and the world at large is "peace on earth, goodwill to men." This sentiment, which usually appeared on our Christmas cards but really didn't take preeminence in most of our thoughts, because we took it for granted, is suddenly our most treasured hope.

And now we know that peace and freedom, paradoxically enough, are something we must fight for; die for, maybe. Convenience, yes, and even happiness, are not as important as a free nation for a free people. Unless we make sure that the world will yet see "peace on earth, goodwill to men," we must count our activities senseless and our words "sound and fury signifying nothing."

For us at home this means putting the winning of the war first and self second. To those now in the armed forces, we send this prayer. May God bless you and protect you and may your Christmas be one of good cheer.

Fire Chief Cautions Residents Against Fire

Cautioned against the danger of household fires at Christmas time, Daly City residents were urged by Fire Chief A. P. Chesney to be especially careful with wrapping paper and gift boxes when opening presents, tomorrow.

Too many fires have spoiled Christmas in American homes in past years because smokers have been careless with matches and cigarette butts around highly inflammable gift wrapping paper, Chief Chesney pointed out.

A warning from civilian defense and police authorities was also sounded regarding the lighting of Christmas trees. Restrictions on reflection of light to the outdoors makes it illegal for Christmas tree lights or any other form of lighting to reflect out-of-doors. Residents were cautioned to keep window shades drawn all the way while lights are on.

EXTRA HOLIDAY

As Christmas arrives in Daly City tomorrow, the local working populace will enjoy a three day holiday.

Employees of both branches of the Bank of America will be free beginning tomorrow through Sunday. Banks will be closed Saturday morning, in addition to the Christmas holiday.

Also, the Saturday legal holiday will be observed by office workers in the city hall. All offices there, except the police department, will be closed all day tomorrow, Saturday, and Sunday.

After one of the most strenuous Christmas mailing seasons yet, the Daly City post office will still be open its regular Saturday hours.

Jefferson Union high school students and all pupils in the grammar schools will return to classes, Monday, January 4.

Red Cross Turns Out 2,000 Garments

Mrs. Fellows Submits Report On Anniversary

Nearly two thousand garments for war refugees and service men were made by Daly City women in the local Red Cross workshop during their first year of wartime operation, it was announced, this week in a report by Mrs. Horace Fellows, Daly City town chairman.

Coming to the front just two short weeks after Pearl Harbor, the Red Cross women in Daly City discarded "red tape" and used good strong thread and yarn in its place, quickly organizing the sewing workshop. The first meeting was held, December 20, 1941, and by the first of the year the workshop in this community was in full working order.

That the workshop had completed 1220 garments in sewing and 348 knitted articles in the year's work was shown by Mrs. Fellows' report. Most remarkable about the fine job which has been done by Mrs. Fellows and her crew of needleworkers is the fact that it was not all just sewing worries that had to be overcome.

The biggest obstacle that confronted the ladies right at the start was the shortage of sewing machines for the number of Daly City volunteer workers who turned out when the call was issued. Then, another difficulty arose when the workshop could not obtain material for making garments. The San Mateo County chapter, American Red Cross, source of the material, announced that no material was available, and the Daly City workshop was forced to close for one month.

Finally, material began to come

Must Appeal Gas Cases By Dec. 31

Only one week remains for Daly City motorists who wish to appeal their case for more gasoline if they have already been notified of the board's decision. All appeals must be filed with War Price and Rationing Board No. 31-4 before Thursday, December 31, it was announced, yesterday, by Mrs. C. F. Day, executive secretary of the board.

Another deadline set by the board was for obtaining War Ration Book 1 by all who have not yet received it. This ration book is the one that was issued, last May, when sugar rationing went into effect, and is currently being used for sugar and coffee. Deadline for getting these books is Friday, January 15. These books may be obtained at the Daly City deputy office of the rationing board. Now open to Daly City and Colma applicants, the office hours are from 7 p. m. to 9 p. m. on Mondays and Wednesdays, and from 9 a. m. to 12 noon on Saturdays. The office meets in the Jefferson Annex grammar school building on San Pedro road.

Mrs. Day said that it was possible that new ration books, scheduled to be ready next month, will be issued at the deputy office also.

Of particular interest to truck owners in the Colma farming area is the fact that the rationing board is granting an additional 30 days more in which they may use temporary gasoline allotments while awaiting certificates from the Office of Defense Transportation. However, truck owners must get approval from the board for the extra 30 days use. In this case, the temporary allotment will be good until January 31. Floods of applications from truck owners are being handled by the Detroit headquarters of the ODT.

Send Eighty-Eight For Physical Exam

Given the benefit of spending Christmas at home, 88 men will be sent to San Francisco, next week, for physical examinations and induction into the army by Daly City Draft Board No. 103 in the final call for this board for the year.

The selectees will be examined, Wednesday, before army doctors at the San Francisco induction

It Isn't Funny To Loyal Firemen

It is midnight when the air horn on top of the city hall blasts the signal, awakening Daly City firemen from a sound sleep. Sandy-eyed firemen get out of their warm beds and into their clothes, gas masks and helmets; firehouse doors are thrown open; fire trucks are started up and raced to the alarm box. And what is it? Another false alarm!

FINAL PROTESTS

Final protests before bonds are issued on the Colma street improvement project will be heard, Monday night at 8 p. m. in the city hall during the regular council meeting. This will be the final date of hearing.

From all appearances, the meeting appears to be a formal hearing, since the project and assessment has been upheld in superior court and Hanrahan and company, contractors are already collecting assessments. The superior court sustained a demurrer on the case, dissolving the injunction filed by property owners.

Bonds will be issued by the city on all unpaid assessments. Assessments are payable either to the contractor or the Bank of America, Colma branch.

Destry (Cliff Pettigrew) Rides Again!-- And A Prize Bull Escapes Quicksands

Here is a bull story, a real bull story, and this is no BULL!

It is the story of the thrilling, heroic rescue, against amazing odds, of a prize bull from the treacherous quicksands near Sharp Park by Daly City's newly crowned hero—Cliff Pettigrew!

In the past months of the war, many stories of heroic rescues from rubber rafts in the Pacific have been told in America's front pages, but the only known bull-rescue-from-quicksand yet recorded was told in an eyewitness account exclusively to the Daly City Record, this week.

The bull, a prizewinner from the Brickdale ranch, (let's call him Ferdinand), narrowly escaped death by a truly good deed by Cliff.

It was about 12:30 a. m. Friday, just after all taverns had been closed, that Ferdinand was staggering home to the Brickdale ranch near Sharp Park. It apparently had been a rather strenuous evening for Ferdinand, but he

Daly City Books Paramount Drama

Are you a harried, hen-pecked husband? Or a weary wife, tired of dishes and vacuum cleaners? Or are you a bachelor—either sex—wondering what this marriage business is all about? Or, maybe, a lady on the prowl, for other women's husbands?

If you're any of these people, then Paramount's hilarious excursion into marital high jinks, "Are Husbands Necessary?", will open your eyes—but wide.

Due December 24 at the Daly City theatre, this effervescent piece of screen entertainment co-stars Ray Milland and blonde Betty Field. Featured players include Patricia Morison, Eugene Pallette, Leif Erickson, Charles Dingle and a half dozen other laugh experts.

"Are Husbands Necessary?" was made from the best-seller novel, "Mr. and Mrs. Cugat," by Isabel Scott Rorick. Ray and Betty, as might be guessed, play the Cugats, with seductive Pat Morison as the "other woman" who does her best to break up a happy family, and then elopes with a millionaire.

The Cugats are a happy pair, addicted to "whiffing" which Webster defines as the telling of little white lies. Ray, an up-and-coming young banker, isn't feeling so good and stays home from the office one day. Betty promptly "whiffles" his sniffles into double-pneumonia, no less. That starts the firecracker train and from then on the film is a riot. Betty comes home to her dying husband doing the Charleston, a cocktail in one hand and Pat Morison, an old flame, from w a y back, in the other. That's how the fun starts in one of the season's funniest films.

many of the little tots lingered at the door to chat with Santa Claus, mostly about Christmas.

One little fellow, on shaking hands with Santa, asked him if he brought his toys with him. Another, a polite little girl who waited until everyone else was through, told Santa she wanted a waffle iron for Christmas. So Santa took all the orders and told the youngsters that the show was starting.

The curtain was raised by the Indians of Rhythm, under the direction of Howard Miguel, music instructor at the high school, entertaining their audience with many current popular tunes. Among them were "The Hills of West Virginia," "Dearly Beloved," "White Christmas," "Right In Der Fuehrer's Face," "Mister Five By Five," and "Lamplighters' Serenade." Vocal solos to these popular dance tunes featured four high school misses, Virginia Nestor, Patsy Maraco, Daisy Yonan, and Lillian Altman.

During the stage act, Santa again "stole the show" when he appeared in the aisle of the theatre. All eyes turned toward him and a house-full of lusty, young voices drowned out the band and gave him a rousing ovation.

From there, the party proceeded to the screen show of cartoon comedies and a western thriller.

The party was sponsored by the Daly City Recreation committee, assisted by the Women's Civic club. It was jointly financed by the city and J. W. Marchbank. The event, in previous years, was handled by the Daly City WPA Recreation department. Curtailment of this unit because of the war failed to stop the city from giving the annual Christmas party for the children.

Much praise for the success of the party was due to the co-chairmen, Mrs. Ann Eason and Mrs. Maisie Boyle, two recreation committee members who worked tirelessly in preparing for the big event. Helping these ladies in passing out candy to the youngsters were: Mrs. L. Cavagnaro, Mrs. M. Gehrig, Mrs. M. Linden, Mrs. A. P. Chesney of the Women's Civic club, and many other individual helpers.

On duty in and out of the theatre during the show were members of the Daly City Fire Department. Henry Combe, manager of the theatre was present for the party.

The Daly City Police department patrolled crosswalks at the front of the theatre before and after the show.

S. M. County Blood Bank Changes Hours

Hours have been changed at the San Mateo County Blood Bank for those who wish to give their blood as well as for those who wish to have their blood typed.

Blood donors are taken now every Monday and Thursday between 3 and 7 p. m., every Tuesday between 9 a. m. and noon, and on Saturday from 9 a. m. until 3 p. m.

A doctor, nurses and hostesses are on hand at these hours to receive the donor's pint of blood, a simple and harmless process made quite pleasant, donors agree, by the cheerful and cordial atmosphere at the County Blood Bank headquarters.

In spite of the gas rationing these days, numerous donors are voluntarily coming in to give their second donations of blood. All those who have given blood and all members of their families may be typed free. The blood type is also stamped on children's identification tags free of charge right at the blood bank. Air raid wardens throughout the county as well as auxiliary police and firemen and all members of their families are also entitled to be typed without cost.

During the Christmas holidays, there will be no blood typing. The hours for typing have been changed. Beginning with January 4 the typing will be done every Tuesday and Wednesday from 1 to 4 p. m. and every Wednesday from 7 to 8 p. m.

Important to remember is the fact that appointments must be made for both typing and donating blood. These may be secured by calling the blood bank at San Mateo 3-1424.

CURRENT ATTRACTION

IT'S LOVE—Blonde and Beautiful Betty Field shares stardom with handsome Ray Milland in "Are Husbands Necessary?", the snappy Paramount comedy of domesticity in a dither, showing at the Daly City theatre, December 24, 25, 26. Patricia Morison is the svelte siren, the "other woman," who causes most of the trouble in the picture. Others in the cast are Eugene Pallette, Charles Dingle, Leif Erickson and Richard Haydn, radio's "Professor Carp."

No, It Wasn't That Burglar Alarm

Sleepy residents of Daly City's north side were awakened in the wee hours, yesterday morning, when the sound from an automobile horn from the B. and G. used car lot, 3348 San Jose avenue, pierced the air.

Officer Ed Heim of the Daly City Police department responded, and disconnected the wiring on the horn, to halt the noise.

TODAY every patriotic American is interested in getting the most for his money by buying more carefully, by taking care of the things he owns and by avoiding waste.

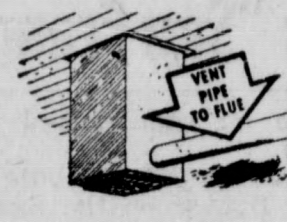

As helpful suggestions to these Home Front war efforts, here are four examples for improving the service from your Natural Gas heating equipment. Do these things now. Winter condition your heating devices. Prevent fuel waste and save money.

1. Take off the grill on your floor furnace or wall register. Have a cardboard carton handy and go to work with a brush or vacuum cleaner. A pancake turner can serve to lift out heavy dirt.

2. Is yours a forced-air furnace? Then take out the filter pads. Give them a good cleaning or replace with new pads. Or better still, have a heating dealer check over the furnace, fan, motor, controls and pilot light.

3. Take a look at the vent pipe that connects your heater or other gas equipment to the flue. If it is rusted out or it leaks have it repaired or replaced now.

4. Watch room temperature and save gas. Overheating is not healthy anyway. If your open fireplace has a damper—close it when the gas heat is on. It is good economy.

We are fortunate in California to have a fuel like Natural Gas. The supply is sufficient for all essential needs and its delivery, flowing in a pipe, creates no transportation problem.

Keep warm, but do not overheat your house. Stay healthy but do not waste Natural Gas. Save fuel. Save Money. Buy War Bonds and Stamps.

Joseph Szigeti, Famed Violinist At Curran, Jan. 3

Joseph Szigeti, one of the famous violinists of the day, will give his first concert in San Francisco, Sunday afternoon, January 3, when he appears on the Curran Theatre series of the Opera association.

However, Szigeti is no stranger to San Francisco as he has, for a number of seasons, starred on many important radio programs, including the Ford Sunday Evening hour and the Philharmonic broadcasts.

Born in Budapest, his first teachers of the violin were his father and uncle. Quickly outstripping them, however, he became the student of the great Jenő Hubay and subsequently of the even more renowned, Joachim.

London was the next port-of-call for Szigeti. He remained in England for five years, playing many concerts in London and the provinces, frequently in joint recital with the singer, Melba, and the great composer, Busoni.

Leopold Stokowski heard Szigeti play in Europe, was impressed, and invited him to the United States. So, in the fall of 1925, Szigeti made his American debut as soloist with the Philadelphia orchestra under Stokowski and scored a rousing success. Since that time, Szigeti has become a perennial coast-to-coast concert favorite in the United States.

Tickets for the concert here are now on sale at Sherman Clay box office, EXbrook 8585.

California Needs Car Sharing Plan During War

Car sharing is a necessity of the war, more urgently needed in the west than any other part of the nation, and needed in California more than any other part of the west.

The California State Automobile association thus described the importance of car sharing as a means of meeting the difficulties of transportation resulting from gasoline rationing. The automobile association has established ride swapping centers at all of its offices.

Reasons why California has a greater need for resorting to group riding were listed by the Association as these:

The top position of California in per capita ownership of automobiles.

Greater dependence upon automobiles for all kinds of travel.

The fact that the state's mass transportation facilities could not begin to absorb the load were any considerable number of automobiles to go out of use.

The car owner who joins in a ride sharing group, the association commented, is demonstrating that he realizes his car is an essential unit of the nation's war-time transportation, and that he is its custodian.

The next tin pickup will be made, Tuesday, January 12. Meanwhile all local housewives were asked to continue saving their tin cans for the collectors when they come around. The salvage committee reiterated that cans should be prepared for collection as follows: wash the cans thoroughly and remove the labels and paper wrapping; flatten them by stepping on them; and deposit them in a box.

WAACS Enroll Women For Training Schools

The Women's Army Auxiliary corps is enrolling women to be sent to its two training schools in January. Applicants who apply for admission to the corps during the month of December will be sent next month either to Daytona Beach, Florida, or to Fort des Moines, Iowa, it was announced from WAAC headquarters, today.

The enrollment of women for this newest branch of the service must be constant in order to meet the quota set by the United States army. Therefore interested women should not delay until after the first of the year to enroll.

The steps by which a prospective WAAC becomes a member of the army are as follows:

First: she calls at her nearest recruiting office or writes WAAC headquarters, 444 Market street, San Francisco;

Second: she signs an affidavit that she has no dependents;

Third: she states that she is an American citizen between the ages of 21 and 44, inclusive;

Fourth: upon completion of the forms, she files them with her recruiting officer and is furnished transportation to San Francisco;

Fifth: in San Francisco she is given a mental alertness test, physical examination and an interview;

Sixth: upon successful completion of these preliminaries she is enrolled in the WAAC in a reserve status and returned to her home, where she may resume her civilian occupation until called to active duty.

Applicants being processed during December will be called in January and February. It is essential that a reserve of women be maintained steadily in Northern California. Therefore, interested candidates for the Women's Army Auxiliary corps should make application at the earliest possible opportunity for the training courses of the next few months.

Extension Schedules Many January Classes

Indicating a busy calendar of opening January classes, schedules of the Extension Division of the University of California will list courses in 136 subjects, a majority of them directed toward increasing the war effort.

Personnel in business and industry, teachers, public speakers, writers, homemakers, nurses and the many who are preparing for work in some field of the war activity are among those who will find courses which have been directly programmed to their advantage.

In addition to large groups of classes on the University of California campus in Berkeley, both downtown San Francisco and Oakland have Extension Centers conveniently located at 540 Powell street, in San Francisco, and at 1730 Franklin street, in Oakland.

Schedules of January and spring term courses may be obtained without charge at all Extension Centers. January 4 is the first date of opening classes, with others following throughout the month.

A BULL STORY

marched on with manly pride—until he reached the quicksands! Then down went Ferdinand into the clutches of a perilous end.

After contacting two or three other garages with no luck, the Brickdale ranch contacted our hero, aroused him from sleep, and, in a few minutes Cliff was on his way, accompanied by his son, Allan, and George Pavlos.

When Cliff galloped up to the scene in his trusty tow car, Ferdinand was sinking fast. As a matter of fact, it looked like he was sunk, literally and figuratively! But, undaunted, our hero jumped from his steed, slung a cable around the unfortunate bull, mounted the tow car again and commenced pulling.

Cliff's tow car was 300 feet from the bull, as it was impossible to get any closer, the car pulling from the ranch road. In addition, Cliff found it difficult to get traction in the loose gravel, but after two or three attempts, marked also by the cable slipping off Ferdinand, he was finally rescued, sound and uninjured.

"He was a tough bull to pull out, but I'm glad we could get him out, and that ain't no bull," was the only comment the modest, unassuming hero had to make. Reports from livestock authorities say that Cliff will probably be presented with the 1942 rescue medal, awarded annually by the C. P. B. Q. S. (Congress for the Protection of Bulls from Quicksands).

partment! They go back to bed and get what little sleep there is left before they must get up early for work at their regular jobs. For Daly City's firemen are not on full time. Practical jokers who delight in turning in false alarms and watching the fire trucks roll up to the alarm box should bear that in mind.

During a period in a week during the past month there were three false alarms turned in, two of which were only two days apart. Fire Chief A. P. Chesney warned persons setting off these alarms of the serious penalty for this violation—a fine of $25, to say nothing of wear on tires and consumption of gasoline in the face of nationwide shortages and rationing.

PACIFIC GREYHOUND LINES

1919 Market St., Oakland, Calif.

May we have some more
—at Christmas?

The greatest war of all time is causing, on the Long Distance lines of the Nation, the greatest number of telephone calls in history.

Those calls are helping to build ships, to make munitions, to move troops and supplies. They are helping to bring the end of the war closer.

Big though it is, the national network of Long Distance lines has no margins this year for purely personal calls. With copper and many other materials vitally needed for war production, more lines cannot be built at this time.

May we therefore ask you . . . even during the holidays . . . to make only those calls to the war-busy centers which are necessary?

We appreciate your friendly understanding. Your continued co-operation is of real help to us.

Insurance Claims In Downward Trend

The downward trend of unemployment insurance claims in California continued, last week, with only 2,115 new claims being filed throughout the State, according to announcement made today by R. G. Wagenet, director of the Department of Employment.

Coming as a natural result of the increased war-time labor market, the unemployment insurance load was 77 per cent less than during the same week in 1941, statistics indicated. Under normal conditions, increases would be expected at this time of the year.

The department paid $164,892 last week in unemployment insurance claims, a sum 81 per cent under the same week in 1941, when $872,107 was disbursed to claimants.

Red Cross Roll Call Set For March

The Red Cross roll call will take place in March, 1943, it was announced today by Miss Helen Percy Chesebrough, vice-chairman of the San Mateo County chapter, American Red Cross.

Miss Chesebrough stated that whereas in the past the drive has been conducted in November, the Red Cross plans to conduct its next drive in March, combined with the War Fund campaign, by order of the president of the United States.

The month of March will be given over to this campaign, Miss Chesebrough said.

ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of the Crippled Children's society of San Mateo county will be held Monday, January 4, at 7:30 p. m. in St. Paul's Episcopal church, 415 El Camino Real, Burlingame.

SHORT CUTS

THE next time Junior leaves his usual tell-tale ring around the bath tub or wash basin, you will find a slightly moistened paper towel to be an excellent short cut in causing the dirt to disappear rapidly. Paper towels absorb all moisture quickly and easily and their slightly uneven surface is a great dirt eradicant. A handy roll of paper towels installed in your bathroom will make household chores seem twice as easy. Then the next time your young pride and joy proceeds to leave his small mark of neglect on your bathroom porcelain, you may rest assured that paper towels have helped you over another tough household hurdle.

A MERRY CHRISTMAS—REALLY!

We read a day or two ago of a minister, trying to prepare a Christmas sermon, who was overwhelmed with a sense of futility as he sought for something in a war-torn world which showed that the spirit of Christmas still lived. When he was in deep despair, a soldier, who had formerly been a member of his congregation, called on him and told him, in simple language, what he was fighting for—for the town where he had grown to manhood, for the townspeople who had put up with his early escapades, for the church, where he was christened, and for "the girl across the street," who was now his wife. That, he said, was what a soldier thought of when people spoke of fighting for America. And the minister found his faith restored in the Christmas message of Peace On Earth, even in the midst of total war, because a soldier had sketched a picture for him of a good way of life in the home towns of America; a way of life worth defending.

Actually, this should be a "Merry Christmas" in the finest sense of the word, despite the fact that family reunions this year will be incomplete; despite the worry about sons and husbands and brothers who are in the country's armed forces; despite high taxes and business losses; even despite the loss of loved ones who have already given their lives in defense of their home towns. It should be a "Merry Christmas" because after many months of heart-breaking reverses, those who fight for human decency and liberty are going forward, and those who would destroy good will and peace on earth are seemingly on the road to their own destruction.

The first Christmas in Bethlehem was not an end; it was a beginning—the beginning of mankind's long, long struggle toward freedom. And this Christmas, with the thunder of war spreading over the world, does not mark the end of all that Christmas personifies; it marks, instead, another milestone in man's struggle against savagery and inhumanity. It is vital, living proof that free men still desire Peace on Earth and Good Will To Men, enough to defend it; enough to die for it.

Southern Pacific
Aids Scrap Drive

More than 360 million pounds of scrap metal have been collected by Southern Pacific company during the past year in the railroad's campaign to aid the national scrap drive, it was made known today.

If loaded in freight cars at the rate of 100,000 pounds per car, this material would have filled 36 trains of 100 cars each, or three such trains per month, it was pointed out by A. S. McKelligon, general storekeeper, who is in charge of the company's scrap program.

"Although scrap-saving has been a practice of long standing on Southern Pacific lines, the company has intensified its program since last December," McKelligon said, "and new practices are constantly being adopted to further increase the railroad scrap pile."

Cooperating with the WPB, Southern Pacific is carrying on a continuous campaign with all employees, urging them to save scrap at home as well as at work.

Bond Battle Nets
Two Pursuit Planes

Two new U. S. pursuit planes, named for San Francisco, will soon roar into action over our war fronts as a result of a successful three-cornered district War Bond battle, it was announced by James G. Smyth, Northern California War Bond administrator for the Treasury department.

Named "San Francisco District Avenger" and "San Francisco Neighborhood Attacker," the planes will be christened within the next month according to an arrangement worked out with the Army Air Forces of the War department and the U. S. Treasury department.

The five and one-half day "Bond Battle," waged by the War Savings committees of the Haight-Ashbury, Central Mission and Fillmore districts, poured a total of $380,918.35 in Bonds and Stamps into Uncle Sam's war coffers. "This is an increase of 96.3 per cent or $169,904.64 over and above the average weekly sales of those three districts—more than enough to pay for two pursuit ships costing $75,000 each," Smyth declared.

Green is now attending Officers Candidate School for the Transportation corps, at Mississippi State college, Starkville, Mississippi. Previously he had been a technical sergeant in the Finance department of III Corps Headquarters at Atlanta, Georgia. Green will complete his new training course about February 1.

AT WINTERLAND

Christmas week at Winterland, Post and Steiner streets, with all the scenic effects and the ice of a "white" Christmas, will be a gala affair, with special parties added to the regular program of activities.

Just Let Us Know!

This is an invitation from the Daly City Record to any local man in Uncle Sam's armed forces, or his "home folks" to let us know of promotions and activities that would be of interest to Daly City readers. We are always happy to publish such news. Since only a few of the training camps and officers' schools have public relations officers, we do not hear directly of many such promotions unless the men or their families themselves tell us.

When "Johnny" or "Joe" becomes corporal or goes off to officers' training school, let us know. Phone RANDOLPH 3215. That's NEWS to Daly City. In addition, our long-ago offer to send The Record free to any man fighting for Uncle Sam still holds. Just let us know your name and address.

Crocker PTA Had
Full Dec. Program

Mrs. Mildred Seiler, president of Crocker P. T. A., announces that the month of December has been a busy time for workers of the local unit.

The annual bazaar, held December 4, was one of the most successful ever held by the group, according to a report by Emma D'Isep, chairman. She concluded her report by thanking her committee and all who helped sew during the year.

At the last regular meeting of the year, held Tuesday, December 8, the Christmas program was furnished by members of the fifth and sixth grades. A group of Christmas songs was furnished by the Girls' Glee club and a piano solo was given by their accompanist. Four pupils from Mrs. Edna Hicks' room sang several lovely Christmas carols.

The financial report was given by the auditor, Mrs. Vivian Pahlka. She informed the unit that the budget for the year has already been met.

Toward the end of the meeting Mrs. Virginia Davidson was elected to serve as chairman at the children's Christmas party, held Friday. She was assisted by Mrs. Pahlka, Mrs. D'Isep, Mrs. Olga Bordson and Mrs. Seiler.

Members of the sewing group held their annual Christmas party, Tuesday, December 15, at the home of Mrs. Seiler, 663 Evergreen avenue. A pot luck lunch was served, followed by the distributing of Christmas gifts. Acting as Santa Claus' helper was the group's mascot, Larry Caratti.

At this time the group also welcomed the wee son of Mrs. Lyl Ingersoll, and the brand new Danny Caratti. Mrs. Davidson also had little baby, Jimmy, with her.

Seventeen ladies were present including Mrs. Hazel Casassa who took the afternoon off from work to be with her buddies.

Mrs. Seiler and her corps of officers join in extending to all members and friends of Crocker unit a Merry Christmas and a very happy and prosperous New Year.

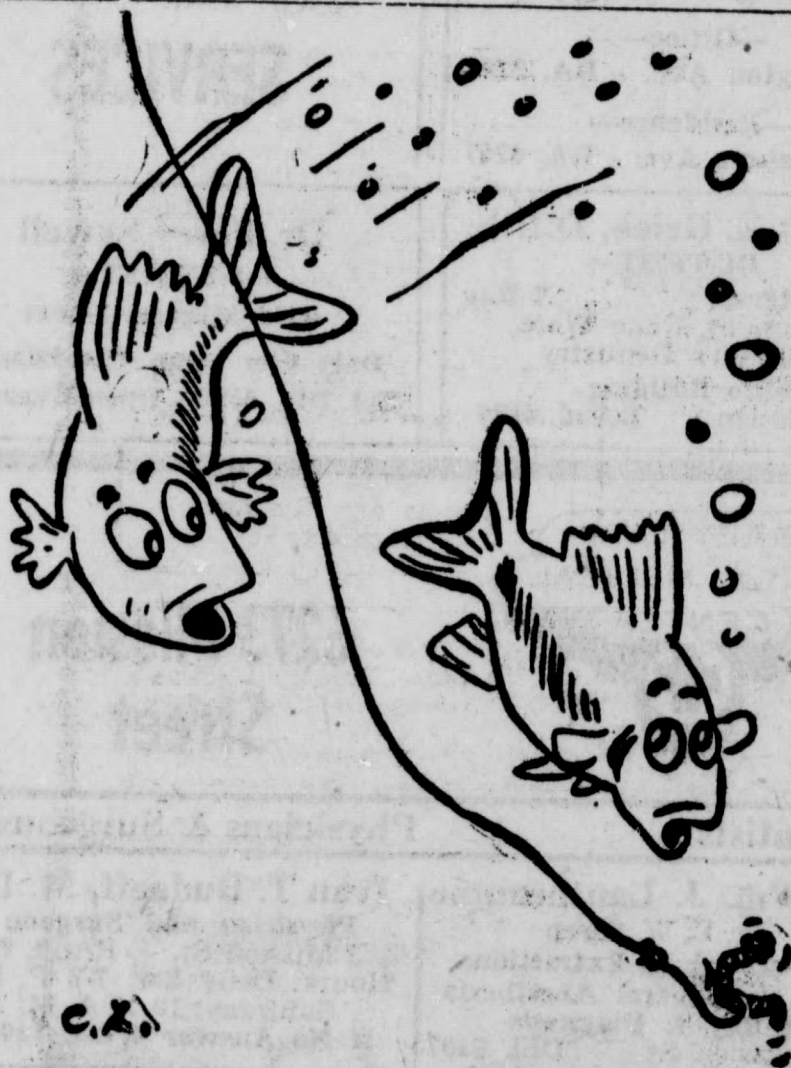

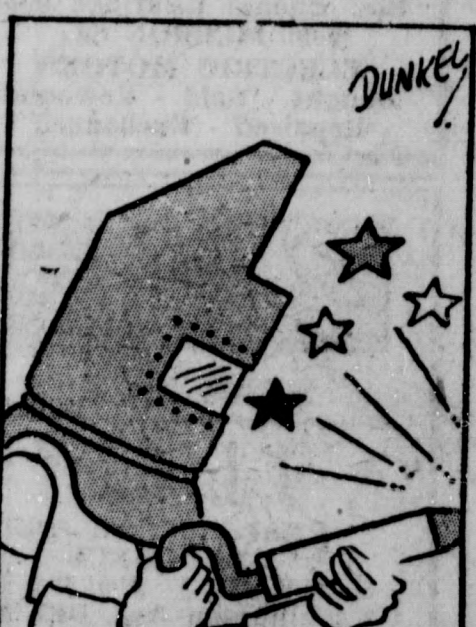

DRUNKEN DRIVING

Hans Peter Wentzel, Sharp Park, was arrested by Daly City police shortly after midnight, Sunday, and booked on drunken driving and dimout violation charges.

He was driving east on Evergreen avenue, near the Hanover street intersection with bright lights on when he was spotted by Officers Joe Kusber and Henry Sundermann jr. When he was stopped, police found he was intoxicated, with the result that he was taken from the machine and jailed.

Cranberry Bishop for Christmas Eve

STEAMING ruby red Cranberry Bishop is the perfect drink to serve on Christmas Eve. Why not camouflage your largest mixing bowl with greens and holly and ladle out the bishop in traditional Yuletide style?

In the old days, oranges were roasted whole, stuck with cloves and then dropped sizzling into steaming cider. If you want to have fun and roast oranges yourself, do so by all means, but they can be prepared much more simply if not nearly so dramatically in the kitchen beforehand.

Oranges were a treasured Christmas treat in olden times—and indeed oranges are just as rare in England today as they were then.

Anything that has to be imported is apt to be pretty scarce in any country right now. We are lucky on that score. Here in America, for example, we grow our own oranges and we're growing a very great deal of our own sugar. This year our farmers hope to produce enough beet sugar to supply every man, woman and child in the country with the eight ounces of beet sugar ration for twelve months. Beet sugar and cane sugar are exactly alike in taste, appearance, and purity, and can be used interchangeably for all purposes.

Fortunately, we have the sugar and we have the oranges. So let's fill the flowing bowl and ladle out the Cranberry Bishop!

Cranberry Bishop

3 cups cranberries (2 lbs.)
6 cups water
1 cup beet sugar
2 oranges, quartered
Cloves
2 cups boiling water
1 quart cider
3 tablespoons lemon juice

Add water to cranberries. Simmer until skins pop. Strain. Add sugar. (This may be done the day before—in which case reheat the cranberry juice before adding to the other ingredients.)

Stick orange quarters with cloves. Pour boiling water over them and simmer for five minutes. Add cider, cranberry juice and strained lemon juice. Heat. Serve immediately, steaming hot. Recipe makes about 1 gallon.

SANTA WAS THERE

The big man in the red suit and white whiskers was on hand, Friday evening to greet the little tots at the annual joint Christmas party, sponsored by Daly City Unit and Daly City Post No. 410 American Legion. The gala party was held at Legion hall at 8 p. m. Old Saint Nick, with his traditional bag of toys and gifts, had a present for each one of the younger generation. Candy was also part of the treat. Refreshments followed.

Regular January whist of the local unit will be postponed one week. Reason for the change is that their regular day falls on New Year. Committee for the event will be announced next week.

The ladies of the unit wish to thank the public for its cooperation during the past year and extend to everyone a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.

Daly City Post Cancels December Public Whist Party

Whist players were asked to note the cancellation of the monthly whist of Daly City Post No. 410, American Legion. Reason for the cancellation is that Christmas falls on the last Friday of the month.

The gentlemen announced their next whist will be held the last Friday in January. General chairman of the evening will be Mel Smith.

The post expressed their thanks to the public for their past patronage and wishes to extend to the people of Daly City a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

El Carmelo Parlor, N. D. G. W. Holds Annual Christmas Party

El Carmelo Parlor No. 181, N. D. G. W., held its annual Christmas party on the afternoon of December 16. Santa Claus was present to give out tiny gifts and candy to 54 of his little admirers. Ice-cream and cookies were also enjoyed. Mrs. Florence Flynn was chairman.

December birthdays were also celebrated at that time. Mrs. Christine Hulme was in charge.

President elect, Mrs. Hazel McDermid, announces that the public installation of officers will be held Wednesday, January 20.

Rhoda Fradella, 14 Bessie street, received the doll and wardrobe, which had been on display at Hale Brothers Mission street store and Warshawski's Dry Goods store.

A grocery basket will be presented to a needy family by the local organization before Christmas. For the past month, members have been contributing canned goods for the basket.

A check has been presented to the San Bruno U. S. O. Hospital-ity house by the local parlor.

Chairman of the Veterans Welfare, Miss Adela Wood, and her committee recently made a trip to the Base hospital at Palo Alto. They presented the veterans of World War I with cigarettes, cookies, candy, magazines and other articles.

Two of the parlor's members, Miss Judy Steele and Miss Shirley Salmirs, San Francisco State College, were recently mentioned in "Who's Who in American Universities."

in again and work was resumed. Responsible for much of the success of the workshop in organizing work for volunteer workers were two sub-chairmen under Mrs. Fellows, Mrs. Julia Jordan, production chairman, and Mrs. Mary Crane, assistant production chairman. Both contributed much to the great work of the Daly City workshop, according to Mrs. Fellows.

The sewing and knitting is being done two days a week in the Daly City Theatre hall, Wednesdays and Fridays between the hours of 10 a. m. and 4 p. m. However, while material was short in the past year, the workshop was only open one day a week. The hall and all utilities are being donated to the Red Cross by J. W. Marchbank.

Although the workshop is at present closed for a two week period, it will re-open again, Wednesday, January 6. Mrs. Fellows expressed a wish to have more volunteer sewing ladies and knitters join the workshop and help in the 1943 program.

"When we reopen in January," Mrs. Fellows said, "we will also be making hospital bandages, and we'll need all the help we can get."

The Daly City workshop did not stop at sewing in their aid to the nation's war program, however. A fund of $150 was raised via an afghan, crocheted by Mrs. Rose Couture, and was turned over to the San Mateo County chapter for purchase of comfort kits for service men.

Sewed garments completed in the year by the Daly City workshop include: 25 convalescent

ARE you flurrying and worrying Around the kitchen scurrying, A'wondering and a'pondering About what to serve tonight? Cease your dancing and your prancing. Here's a recipe entrancing. Try it and both guests and family Will approve with all their might.

Crusty Fruit Triangles
2 cups sifted cake flour; 2 teaspoons double-acting baking powder; 3/4 teaspoon salt; 1/2 cup shortening; 1 1/2 teaspoons grated orange rind; 1/2 cup seedless raisins; 2 tablespoons dark corn syrup; 1/2 cup milk.

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder and salt, and sift again. Cut in shortening; add orange rind and raisins. Combine corn syrup and milk. Add all at once to flour mixture and stir carefully until all flour is dampened. Then stir vigorously until mixture forms a soft dough and follows spoon around bowl. Turn out immediately on lightly floured board and knead 30 seconds. Roll 1/4 inch thick and cut in triangles. Place on ungreased baking sheet. Brush tops lightly with corn syrup. Bake in hot oven (450° F.) 12 to 15 minutes, or until browned. Makes about 15 triangles.
